Ensuring Health for All

“ She obtained her LMP diploma and became the first Assamese woman to do so. ”

Dr Sushila Thomas L.M.P. was the first lady doctor from Assam. She was the daughter of Charles Sonaram Thomas of Nowgong district of Assam. She was born in the year 1897. After completing her school education from Nowgong, she went to Calcutta (now Kolkata) and studied in Campbell Medical School. From there she obtained her LMP diploma and became the first Assamese woman to do so. Initially she worked in the Dhubri district of Assam and later she worked in various hospitals in Shillong. She breathed her last at her Nowgong home at the age of seventy. □□
