

ASSAMESE WOMEN THE PATHBREAKERS

Women's Studies Cell of Handique Girl's College was set up in 2001, as a unit of Women's Studies Research Centre, Gauhati University. Since then, it has been taking up a number of activities such as gender sensitization programmes among students and Faculty, talks by eminent persons in the field, as well as movie screenings. The cell has introduced a Certificate Course on women's studies for under graduate students since 2008. It is hoped that the present venture of publishing this book on Assamese women Pathbreakers will receive positive response from the readers.
